FINDING BALANCE

A MAIN BATHROOM RECEIVES A SUSTAINABLE,
FAMILY-FRIENDLY
MAKEOVER!

Designer Yvonne Crezel
www.yccdesign.ca

When Designer Yvonne Crezel began this main bathroom project for a growing family of four, accommodating the needs of both children and adults was paramount. The space needed to be practical for daily use by a family with young children while also exuding a luxurious feel suitable for visitors. This balancing act guided decisions on material choices, furniture selection, and spatial planning. Innovative solutions like a floating vanity were implemented to maximize floor area and facilitate comfortable bathing for children. Yvonne also focused on sustainable materials and eco-friendly practices wherever possible.

Inspired by the homeowners's preference for a wet room with a fully tiled, seamless look, Yvonne integrated earthy green tiles with off-white counterparts to prevent the room from feeling cramped. This combination added a luxurious yet soothing ambiance, meeting the homeowner's desire for a dreamy and moody space. Key elements that set this bathroom apart include meticulously mixed finishes of plumbing fixtures and the creative juxtaposition of organic-colored tiles. These details not only add visual interest but also enhance the overall aesthetic appeal of the space.

Technical challenges included aligning tile and grout lines seamlessly, which required precise planning and collaboration with skilled tradespeople. Adjustments such as lowering the ceiling and reconfiguring the doorway were necessary to achieve the desired aesthetic and functional goals. Collaboration with construction professionals, such as Silverbirch Builds, was crucial. Their expertise ensured that Yvonne's designs were executed flawlessly, from initial concept to final installation. By blending functionality with aesthetic appeal and prioritizing the family's needs, she transformed this ordinary space into an extraordinary, inspiring environment.

"Even though a bathroom is multifunctional and hardworking, there is no reason why it cannot be soothing and luxurious!"
